

This CV is anonymous for security purposes - In order to obtain access to this candidate, you must be an identified business

productivity engineer

I am looking for a job in the production follow up like production manager or industrial cost controller in the plastic industry, preferably in the automotive brand.

Work experience

Since
April 2007

productivity engineer

Mission: Responsible of the daily and monthly production performance indicators updating

Means: - Follow up daily production (synthesis production data, suggest improving indicators...)
- Implementation of an industrial cost control tool in a new ERP (Sage-Adonix)

Diplomas and education

September 2003
September 2006

ITECH Lyon

Degree in Engineering

Area of specialisation: specialised in plastics matters

Language skills

English

Speaking competence: Fluent, Written competence: Fluent

Spanish

Speaking competence: School level, Written competence: School level