

This CV is anonymous for security purposes - In order to obtain access to this candidate, you must be an identified business

Branch development / Project manager East and Middle Europe

Branch's developments in Slovakia and Project manager for industrial process in automotive industry.

Living from 3 years in Slovakia -Central Europe-, the knowledge of Slovakian, Czech and English languages and my proficiencies enabled me to have a good integration in Slovakian culture and to start and developed activities.

If you need some informations or if you are looking for some contact to extend / develop or create some business, don't hesitate to contact me.

Staying to be attentive to your requests.

Pierre Morelli.

Work experience

Since
May 2008

Project Coordinator

- Mission:
- Project follow – up,
 - Coordination of project team between Quality, Production, Purchasing and Logistics department,
 - Organisation and animation of PEP meeting between team and head quarter,
 - Conception of production flow and layout to insure project feasibility,
 - Internal project review and reporting to head quarter (Germany).

July 2007
April 2008

Branch development and project manager for industry (Slovakia)

- Mission:
- Redaction of detailed estimate to client's supply request.
 - Technical research and functional analysis upon client's specifications.
 - Project planning and realisation: budget, project timing, technical control, professional consultations.
 - Team and subcontractor management.
 - Reporting and meeting to client.
- Branch's development in Slovakia:
- Development of suppliers and subcontractors network and activation of this one: use branch for development of "Low Cost" connection with French group Veolia.
 - Clients searching.

February 2005
June 2007

Branch development and project manager for industry (Slovakia)

SODEREL Corporation (Slovakia 2 years)

- Mission: Setting – up and managing / running the branch of French subsidiary in Slovakia:
- Searching local for subsidiary's office.
 - Personals recruitment for team construction: electricians, automation programmer and assistant.
 - Training new employees with the head - office support in France.
 - Team's management and driving.
 - Starting activities with project in automotive industry.
 - Project follow – up.
 - Reporting to the head – office.

February 2002
January 2005

SODEREL Corporation (France 3 years)

Project manager for automotive industry (France)

Mission: • Technical research and development, redaction of technical documentation: functional analyses, organics analyses, training manual.
• Program conception and installation at client, workings follow – up, functionality test.
• Service engineers and users training session with support manual.

Diplomas and education

September 1999
June 2001

Faculty (France): « Industrial computing science and electricity »

Faculty (France): « Industrial computing science and electricity », specialisation automation and industrial systems.

Level achieved: University degree.

Computing skills

Software

Office tool automation :

- MS Project for project planning board – time and resources forecasting.
- MS Excel and corporation's tool for balancing sheet, activity report, order projection.
- MS Word, MS Power point, Internet and mail (lotus and outlook)

Languages

- Industrial supervisory control development with Siemens WinCC software – Advanced levels.
- Automation development with Siemens Step7 – Advanced.
- Industrial network research, construction and administration – fiber optic and Ethernet technology.
- C and HTML languages – advanced.

Language skills

English

Speaking competence: Fluent, Written competence: Fluent

French

Speaking competence: Native speaker, Written competence: Native speaker

Polish

Speaking competence: Fluent, Written competence: Fluent