Audit Counselor / Financial Analyst / Sales Executive

I'm a self-confident person in my work. My past experiences have shown me my abilities to manage a team and how to reach a common corporate goal.

I aspire in my career to be a good manager/ leader and in a long-term way, achieving a good position within a company or working in my own.

I believe in people and always trust them to get the work done, members of a team have to feel part of it and get recognition; In case of an issue during the process I have no problem to take myself the responsibilities and the decisions in order to reach the Goal.

I believe that some of the strengths I can bring to a position are:

- Strong leadership skills, with the ability to provide unity and direction in implementing and reaching common goals.
- Excellent communication, organization, facilitation and coordination skills
- A sincere desire to contribute to the continued growth and success of your company.
